

ARREST CREATES SMALL SENSATION

PROMINENT YOUNG MEN CHARGED WITH BINDING, GAGGING AND ROBBERY WOMAN.

Tusculum, Ala., Feb. 10.—A sensation was created in Tusculum Thursday by the arrest of a well known young man of a prominent family on the charge of binding and gagging Mrs. Kate Kirkpatrick and robbing the house of diamonds and money Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It was one of the boldest crimes ever committed in this city.

The name of the young man is Bert Weatherlow whose family connections are among the most prominent in the city. He was taken before Mrs. Kirkpatrick who is said to have stated that she believed he was the man who entered her home Tuesday afternoon and bound and gagged her.

Weatherlow denies the charge and it is the hope of his friends and the friends of his family that he will establish his innocence. His arrest was caused by a warrant sworn out by J. B. Norman, a brother of Mrs. Kirkpatrick. When the young man was carried to the home of Mrs. Kirkpatrick Thursday she became extremely nervous as the trying ordeal of Tuesday was brought vividly before her.

Young Weatherlow is in jail awaiting a preliminary hearing.

MR. WHITELY BIRD

Probably one of the most popular visitors of the week to Dothan is Houston, representative to the legislature from the 1st district. He returned to the city last night from Montgomery where he has been with the soldiers in a busy session. Many friends and acquaintances are questioning the representative about the situation in the capital city, the local option bill and flight and many other various hot shots.

Mr. Whitely explains that although the local option bill was thrown out of the legislature with a veto, it will be a success to get it through the Senate as it is generally expected throughout the state, however he expects a victory for it. He is of the opinion that it will reach the body by next Tuesday.

In regard to the prohibition for he stated that it was generally conceded that the most impassive speech for prohibition and the most forceful for this cause was delivered by representative Oscar Mulvey of Geneva county who displayed much faithfulness and enthusiasm along with that of the other drys.

Mr. Whitely will return to Montgomery Monday morning.

CHINESE HOSTILE TO FOREIGN LOAN

LIVES OF MINISTERS ARE THREATENED BY ANGRY NATIVES.

Peking, Wednesday, Jan. 11.—Indications are not wanting in these days of growing hostility throughout the country not only to the granting of foreign railway concessions but even to obtaining money from abroad for the construction of the lines which the government is anxious to build.

The student body of the province of Shantung has issued what amounts to a proclamation practically threatening the government with war should further loans be arranged with foreigners.

Constant threats upon the lives of ministers are indications of the present hostility to what is considered the aggression of foreigners upon the integrity of China.

FISH AUTO TURNS TURTLE

Last night near Pansey, the Ford touring car of Hon. George Leslie's turned turtle as it skidded and threw the occupants out, several of them narrowly escaping injury. The car was being driven by Felix Leslie and as it came down a hill it struck a sand bed where it skidded, turned around and then turned over. Several boy friends were in the car and were thrown out but were only slightly bruised. The wind shield of the machine and several other parts were damaged by the accident and it was necessary to get another car to pull them in.

Lord Deedes Couldn't have got off with that uniform on had he come to Dothan.

Jack London will have a fine selling his Mexican war unless he pulls off some real battle down there.

Sheriff Higdon of Jefferson will probably sue Mr. Percy and Mr. Melton for casting reflections his way in their speeches the other day.

Dothan has never experienced such an automobile boom as it is now. The people are buying cars, and paying for them, too, just like they were $200 mules.

The moving picture people will soon be showing us that thing they call a fight over in Mexico. All of the things they have had, have merely been poses for the camera.

Edison says that mules and horses will soon go, and from the price at which they are selling, it looks like no substitute for them has been discovered.

Some real legislation may be enacted now, that the local option bill is off the minds of the people. It oughtn't to take the boys long to get through with their work and come on back home.

It is reported that oil has been discovered at Fayette, where the Cosmos Oil and Gas Co., are making the search. John D. probably has all he needs now, and may let them work it if they find it.

It was in Washington, where the woman had a hand at recalling the mayor of Seattle the other day. The woman had a hand at recalling the judgement at times, it is said, in selecting officials.

If there is anything in the printed matter the Mobile Mardi Gras is sending out, they are going to have a big show. They are mailing out circulars about 10x14 feet, to decorate the walls of barns and warehouses.

The editor who mails out a "black print" sheet of his paper to the subscribers, or exchanges, ought to have to pay third-class postage on the issue, unless he sent the tympan along so that the paper could be read.

Clothes don't cost much down here in the Wiregrass. Some rich men men don't even own an overcoat, says the Andalusia Star. Yes, we know of people who own overcoats that don't get over three wears out of them in a season.

So long as some of the weekly papers get out an eight page paper with six of them printed out of town, just so long will they fail to do anything out of advertising. If one is not equipped to print, but two pages at home, he shouldn't print a paper with but two pages, but let them be all his own.

The gentlemen from Ohio (Charles Lewis and Brooks Lawrence) will probably maintain headquarters at the capitol, but they will have to put out a field force, reaching the people direct. And by this we will have some lively campaigning over the state again during the next forty or fifty days.

If the commission form of government was in force in Alabama there would be no trouble in enforcing prohibition laws in towns where the people were interested in the question. Under that form of government an election could be called, where 25 per cent of the voters want it, to put out a candidate to beat the official who wasn't doing his duty.

It doesn't seem exactly fair that Lord Deedes should have come over here and married an heiress when he didn't dress up as most grooms do, but insisted on wearing that drum major uniform of his, with sword attached. He must have anticipated trouble in making George Gould sign the papers making the usual transfer to him of as much money as he might need for the present.

The Montgomery Advertiser is rejoiced as it hasn't been since the convention that gave it to Jones instead of Kolb, some years ago. It came out flat-footed for every bill, claiming they were all good and would pass from the Smith "administration bill," on down to Parks' bill. It hasn't agreed yet that Parks' was a conservative bill and a sort of a compromise.

For years we have observed the crowd of town loafers that occupy the chairs in front of the hotels. We had also noticed the people who visit the city and take their meals at restaurants and hang out around the fashionable hotels, and we see that old Ed Doty, of Andalusia, has been here. He says he once dined at a cheap restaurant and wrote a letter on the Astor House stationery.

The Savannah Morning News unofficially announces that the Gould-Deedes wedding cost $50,000. Cheaper than we had figured, but when it comes to having a wedding cake four feet high, and goodness knows what in circumference, which cost $1,000 that looks like a clean waste of material. The Morning News thinks the newly weds are no better tied up than in ordinary Georgia couple, who spent $2.30, including preacher's fee.

We have seen a good deal written about the Gould-Deedes wedding, but we have looked in vain for one thing. We want to see an itemized list of the cost of that show. It seems but some of the special space writers have overlooked a good chance to get in more stuff on the question. They could publish yards and yards of items about the cost of the wedding, and it would all be read, too.

FAKING IT SERIOUSLY.

The Enterprise People's Ledger man ought to take something. He takes Alabama politics too seriously, and his editorial page doesn't begin to hold all he wants to say about things, and he fills three or four columns of the front page with some red hot stuff every week. We suppose the people of Coffee County must be in line with Editor Carlisle, else he would write some "E Pluribus Unum," or Sum Um Bonum" articles to his paper kicking. If they don't it all goes to show what a molder of public opinion a newspaper is.

Now that the local option bill is coming to the people, and we will all have a vote, we suppose that the subject might be changed from the main issue to the question of whether or not liquor shall be sold in Coffee, and if so, how.

DIFFERENT BRANDS.

Different sections of the country are affected with different kinds of wild animals. Now in Dothan, we have a species of animals, known as the blind tiger, that gives the people both relief and trouble. The thirsty people think they are a relief, but the others think they make only trouble.

Up in Gadsden the whole country is up a tree because some mountain lions are roaming about. Don't know whether it is the grade of booze they use up there that makes the animal take on the shape of a mountain lion, or whether some menagerie has tasted up in that neighborhood.

A report comes from there that the sheriff has been asked to come in and join the hunt for three mountain lions that have been terrorizing the farmers in Etawah and Calhoun counties, but the report fails to state whether the sheriff considered it a part of his duties to join in this lion hunt.

THEY RECALLED HIM.

Out in Seattle, where the commission form of government has been tried, they like it. The people of Seattle got to watching the movements of the mayor. It looked as if he was in league with the chief of police, to protect certain dives. The people rose up about it, and enough of them raised a row to call an election. The election was called, and it called in the mayor. He was defeated, which shows that he must have grown rotten while in office, and failed to do what he had promised the people he would do.

Under the old way, the way we operate towns, he would have remained in their, aiding petty graft, till his term of office expired. But the commission form of government only provides an office for a city official so long as he doing his duty by the people. When he falls, the people can call an election and put him out, if enough voters think he has gone wrong.

The commission form of government is growing popular. It will sweep the country, just as soon as a few towns try it.
